

my summary of (If you believe in God, you do not belong in prison).

Gloria G. Lee's book gives a very broad perspective of how we should display our love for God, ourselves, and man in order to respect God's law, and man law. If we believe there is a God then we should follow him, if not oh well. we don't need to Hamble on the fact that there is a heaven, or hell, but practice making positive decisions, and not end up a negative statistic. When we do end up in prison just remember Christ is with us! for he spent time in prison as well. The moment we have here on earth should be a testimony that glorify God. If you dream visualize, live and manifest it. The wisdom of the world shrinks in comparison to the wisdom God's word can give, because this wisdom becomes discipline, so allow it to change and discipline you so you can have a guide to follow and promises that you can rely on. Don't go on feeling there is a lot of things to feel in this world, take for instant love, etc a commitment on a feeling. It is God's will for you to read, study, live by his word, use his word in prayer etc... In closing this book tells you of choice, will and making the right one

Thank you
Brother Perrell.
