After I read the book "If you believe in God you don't belong in prison" I started to feel more positive about my life. I am currently in prison for picking up a gun so I can relate to many things that were said in this book. Before I was arrested, let's say before I decided to use drugs, I was a hard worker with a nice family and a house. I used to coach my sons baseball team for a number of years. Then I started selling and using drugs, this led me to robbing some innocent people. People who did not deserve to be treated that way. Since being locked up I have turned my life over to Christ. And this book has given me a lot of insight to the road I want to be on. I have realized that there is nothing to bog for me to conquer. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. I will maintain a standard of integrity and ethics. I will shed my feelings of worthlessness and despair. I will not let the devil have mine and my families life. All in all I have taken many parts of this book to heart. It was a great read and full of inspiration to me. Thank you.
