

Dear Ms. Lee.

My name is Mr. Clyde. I'm writing you about your book. If you believe in God, you don't belong in prison. I was really fascinated about the statistics of men using a gun, but I'm 47 years old, I've never ever in my life had a gun. I thank God for that. I grew up with a Grandfather and a father as preachers. I just chose the street life and made some bad choices. I know that God said in his word that all men should be saved. I still have a chance to go back into society and make a difference. I must take into consideration the Bible first, plus what you were saying in your book to heart and do the right thing. Then I won't have to worry about prison anymore except if it's God's will to come back into prison and preach his word. Amen. I really did appreciate your book and how you took so much time and energy to write it. I see that what a person put into something is what a person will get out of it. You just keep on doing what God has called you to do to make a difference in other people's lives. I pray that I can read more of your books in the future. Men do need to make a stand and start thinking in a positive way. Then start having a spirituality about themselves. A lot of men still have Adam's spirit in them instead of Jesus' spirit. Amen.

May God continue to bless you in Jesus' name

Amen

Mr. Clyde
