

Gloria

I really enjoyed reading your book although I am not incarcerated on a gun charge, except for hunting I have never picked up one. I do relate to the fact if I wouldn't have picked up the drugs I wouldn't be here now.

A lot of what you wrote I can really relate to, a man does need to be out there and work, take care of his wife and kids and he can't do none of that without ~~God~~ God in his life, it took me 43 years to see that, but at 45 I do see the signs of life getting better. It saddens me to see all those young men's lives ruined over stupidity and worse all those innocent lives taken over that same stupidity. I hope you continue to write books of inspiration because I know I will start reading them.

Sincerely
Robert
